"HELLO, NEW YORK; ALBUQUERQUE ON THE WIRE"

Manager Reynolds of Mountain States Company Holds Conversation With New York City Manager Today.

In future any citizen of Albuquerque who has important business pending in New York City may discuss that business with the New York end of the transaction by telephone, and at rates which are by no means prohibitive.

Through long distance telephone connection between Albuquerque and Washington, New York, Boston and Philadelphia, as well as all intermediate points, was completed yesterday afternoon and this morning Manager Reynolds of the local office of the Mountain States Telephone company held a brief and very satisfactory conversation with the manager of the New York City office.

It has been several weeks now since transcontinental commercial telephone service was completed, but it had been supposed that local and district services with the big eastern cities would not materialize for some time to come. Instead, the Mountain States company by hustling during the past few weeks has been enabled to hook up with the all-American service and in future important business with the eastern centers may be transacted by telephone.

"This service seems to be excellent," said Manager Reynolds this morning, "and in talking with New York this morning, the conversation was perfectly clear. The idea that this service will be at prohibitive cost is erroneous. While the tolls for a talk with New York City naturally are considerably higher than for a talk to Denver or Kansas City, yet business of importance may be transacted over the telephone with New York at a comparatively moderate cost, when the satisfaction of a personal conversation is considered."

DISPLAY A GOOD GUESS AND GET SEASON PASS

Club Nickname and Uniform Trimmings Afford Chance for Two Fans to See Baseball for Nothing.

Good guessers can secure season tickets to the baseball games—the Rio Grande association games in this city. Manager Reed announces that the name and uniform contests are now on, and guesses are to be sent to him. The girl or woman who sends a correct guess as to the color of the trimmings on the uniforms will be given a season book. The man, boy, woman, girl or infant—nobody is barred—who submits the prize-winning suggestion for a nickname for the club will receive a season pass.

Here are a few suggestions for the mentally crippled: Clams, Torties, Cough Drops, Salines, Missionaries, Dry Farmers, Fauntlers, Hot Cakes, Milkmaids.

Manager Reed—who asserts vehemently that the team positively will not be called the Reeds or Reed Birds—has sent in his order for team uniforms. The team will be organized without loss of time. Boss Reed has his eye on material that includes men who have been in training this spring so the club will save money on training expenses.

NOTICE.

The two Albuquerque daily papers are glad to favor Albuquerque churches and lodges by publishing notices of services and meetings free of charge. Notices of entertainments, lectures, recitals, suppers, teas, etc., which are given for the purpose of making money, however, will be charged for at regular advertising rates. Where an admission is charged or a collection is taken, whether mention of the fact is made in the notices published in the paper or not, the papers will charge for the notices. Instead of publishing notices in, bring them.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count Fifty! Your cold in head or nostril disappears. Your clogged nostril will open, the air passage is clear, your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more sniffing, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostril. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, sooths and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up and miserable. Relief is sure.

SMITH'S GREAT RECORD IN FIELD OF CHRISTIANITY

Fred H. Smith, assistant to the president of the John-Maville company, who will be the chief speaker at the Retail Merchants' associating dinner here tomorrow night, is regarded as the greatest living speaker to men by many who have heard him.

He has spoken to vast audiences in all parts of the world. He was formerly connected with the Young Men's Christian association, and gained international fame among religious people as the leader of the men and religion forward movement.

It was in the fall of 1899 that Mr. Smith was asked to enter the service of the International Y. M. C. A. committee for the purpose of commanding the American city associations holding conferences with officers, committee and active members in relation to the organization of religious work. His success during the following eighteen months will stand as one of the high lights in historical pictures of contemporary Christian work and many in this community have heard him and will remember his addresses in the great convention of the social and religious gatherings. It is nearly two years ago that Mr. Smith became vice president of the John-Maville company.

The dinner will be at the Alvarado hotel. Mr. Smith will speak on "The Business Man's Era."

Tony's telephone is ringing all day. Why? Because he made the 25c fast rate.

Crossing; Three Other Autorists In the Net.

Four automobiles, one arrested for reckless driving, were arraigned before Judge Craig in the city court this morning.

James Thomas, the driver charged with recklessness, was fined $5. He was arrested by Motorcycle Policeman M. B. Schutt last night after he made a turn at Third street and Central avenue that narrowly escaped bringing disaster to another automobile and a couple passing over the crossing.

J. A. Tharp, also arrested by Schutt for fast driving, was fined $5.

R. C. Vandrell was arrested for not having his lights lit. He convinced the court that he had been lit a short time before and he was released with a warning.

C. B. Jones, whom Schutt also charged with failing to have his lights lit, will be tried at 5 o'clock this afternoon.
